

The refurbishment of the existing architecture pivots around delicate and neutral elements which enhance the characteristic of the existing interiors. One of these elements, a light elegant new ceiling has been designed to cover the iconic multifunctional space of the school.

