

0 5 10 m
ground floor

A new inhabited wall hosts the new program and encloses a new garden which becomes the reference space for classrooms. This inhabited border gives continuity to the existing fabric, reinterpreting the original typology and completing the urban layout subjected to conservation. Moreover, it highlights the presence of the Ragenhaus, so that the extension is understood as a low-key building that complements the pre-existing architecture.