

El Tanque Garden: Industrial Heritage and Nature

FERNANDO MENIS

> Social impact: the first public green space in the Cabo Llanos neighborhood

Exterior spaces 06B001269

What used to be a contaminated underused land, though part of a protected heritage compound, is already a leafy garden that will only get better as times passes and biodiversity regains the site, offering a public space for social cohesion, reconnection with nature and heritage.
